

Our culture

In a service business, what you're like inside affects what you deliver outside. We operate an open, learning, collegiate, outward looking culture that encourages individuality, creativity, collaboration and contribution. It creates a positive atmosphere that many of our clients remark upon. For them, our environment is like a welcome breath of fresh air. They feel good to be part of it.

So we only appoint people whose integrity and personal values fit – and who have a passion for helping others succeed. This applies to our Partners, our support staff and our International and Associates in France. In that way, Praesta doesn't only have great people. It also has a very special team.
